147. The Ministers welcomed the acceptance by the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya of United Nations Security Council resolution 731 (1992) of 21 January 1992 and reiterated the hope that the parties concerned would find a peaceful and just settlement that would secure the interests and rights of all parties in accordance with the norms of international law and the principles of the Charter of the United Nations. They expressed concern over the negative consequences of the continuation of the crisis on the Libyan people, the neighbouring countries and the region. They called on the parties concerned to refrain from any action that would result in escalation and to settle the crisis in a peaceful and speedy manner, in accordance with Chapter VII of the Charter. They welcomed and upheld resolution No. 5373 dated 27 March 1994 of the League of Arab States and urged the Security Council to take the new proposal it contained into consideration with a view to arriving at a peaceful and just settlement.
